

European Jihad Watch – 03/2016

- More than 2,000 French nationals or residents are involved in Syrian-Iraqi jihadist networks (including 609 in Syria or Iraq)
- 238 legal proceedings concerning 762 individuals are ongoing
- French, British and German nationals or residents represent nearly 70 % of all EU nationals or residents involved in jihadist networks

France

French nationals or residents involved in jihadist networks since January 2013

Sources : official data, CAT analysis

Ongoing legal proceedings and administrative measures*

	March 2016
Ongoing legal proceedings including – Judicial investigations – Prosecution proceedings	238 118 120
Individuals involved	762
- Indictments Of which on pre-trial custody	259 157
- Under investigation	470
- Convicted	33
Prohibitions to leave the territory	294
Prohibitions of entry and stay	97

*Data specific to the Syrian-Iraqi jihadist networks

Sources : Paris Public Prosecution office, Minister of Interior

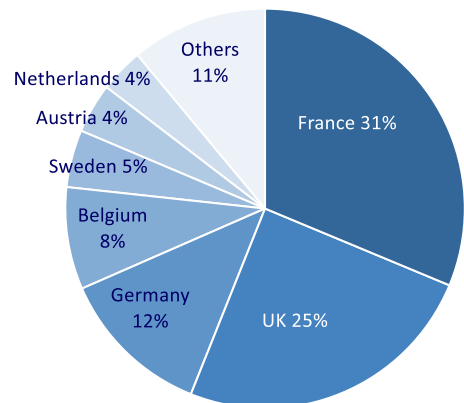

European Union

EU nationals or residents involved in jihadist networks by country of origin (absolute value)

Sources : Most recent available official data, CAT analysis (Some Member States do not record the intents of departure)

EU nationals or residents involved in jihadist networks by country of origin (% of the total)

Sources: Most recent available official data, CAT analysis (Some Member States do not record the intents of departure)