

European Jihad Watch – Issue #3 – March 2017

- About 2,300 French nationals or residents are involved in Syrian-Iraqi jihadist networks (including 689 in Syria or Iraq).
- 419 legal proceedings concerning 1,302 individuals are ongoing in France.
- Almost 7,200 EU nationals or residents, about 70% of which are French, British and German nationals or residents, are involved in jihadi networks, including almost 5,800 departures and more than 1,500 returnees in the EU.

France

2,299 French nationals or residents involved in jihadist networks since January 2013

*Since July 2016, only the individuals who returned from the area of terrorist operations in Syria-Iraq are recorded as returnees. Beforehand, this segment also included individuals arrested abroad before entering the area. These are now included in the segment of intents/attempts of departure.

Sources : official data, CAT analysis

Ongoing legal proceedings and administrative measures*

	March 2016	Sept 2016	March 2017
Ongoing legal proceedings including
– Judicial investigations	238	329	419
– Prosecution proceedings	118	141	180
	120	188	239
Individuals involved	762	990	1,302
- Indictments	259	282	357
Of which on pre-trial custody	157	169	234
- Under investigation	470	583	756
- Convicted	33	74	114
- Awaiting trial	nd	51	75
Prohibitions to leave the territory	294	380	450
Prohibitions of entry and stay	97	182	210

*Data specific to the Syrian-Iraqi jihadist networks

Sources : Paris Public Prosecution office, Minister of Interior

European Union

EU nationals or residents involved in jihadist networks by country of origin (absolute value)

Sources : Most recent available official data, CAT analysis

EU nationals or residents involved in jihadist networks by country of origin (% of the total)

Sources: Most recent available official data, CAT analysis